ROWE announces project manager promotions

Flint, Michigan, June 12, 2009 – Two ROWE Professional Services Company employees were recently promoted to senior project manager and project manager positions.

Eric N. Johnston of Grand Blanc served as a Project Manager since 2003 and has been promoted to Senior Project Manager.

Johnston earned a B.S. in civil engineering at Michigan Technological University in 1992 and joined ROWE that same year; he was named an associate (owner) in 1999. His new position includes overseeing the design and construction of various transportation-related projects from the corporate office in Flint.

Jeremy M. Lynn of Durand was promoted from Project Engineer to Project Manager.

Lynn earned a B.S. in civil engineering at Michigan Technological University in 2000 and joined ROWE that same year; he was named an associate (owner) in 2009. His new position includes overseeing construction engineering operations from the corporate office in Flint.

ROWE's headquarters are in Flint, MI; additional offices are located in Lapeer, Mt. Pleasant, Grayling, MI, and Myrtle Beach, SC. The firm provides engineering, surveying, aerial photography/mapping, landscape architecture, planning, and land development services to governmental and private entities nationwide.
