

Energy – Land Surveying

ROWE's services include:

- Preparation of aerial alignment sheets and proposed route mapping (aerial photography and conventional)
- Right-of-way/easement determination and staking
- Boundary determination
- Centerline topographic surveys
- GPS/RTK surveying
- Construction staking
- As-built surveys
- Transmission pipeline locating and depth determination (RD Technology)
- Environmental engineering support (locate wetland flags, monitoring well and soil borings locations)
- Engineering support (MicroStation or AutoCAD)
- Volumetric calculations

ROWE Professional Services Company understands energy companies have highly specialized needs and accelerated schedules exclusive to the industry.

Our professionals are exceptionally qualified, capable, and responsive to the unique challenges of each energy sector client, which has ranged from international pipeline corporations to wind energy companies. Our staff has the safety certifications required to work on these types of projects.

ROWE's survey department has access to more than 100 construction engineers, design engineers, and planners firm wide to provide comprehensive surveying and engineering consulting services.

ROWE's aerial division, provides complete aerial photogrammetric services, a perfect complement to our comprehensive land surveying services.

For ISNETWORLD subscribers, view ROWE's compliance information at www.isnetworld.com

ROWE PROFESSIONAL SERVICES COMPANY

1.800.837.9131

www.rowepsc.com

Large Firm Resources. Personal Attention.